Exhibit A

Section 700.275 Termination of Utility Service to Businesses Without Current Business License

- A. The City of Camdenton, Missouri may terminate all utility services it provides any person, business or corporation conducting business in the City of Camdenton, Missouri, without a current business license.
- B. In the event utility services are terminated as provided for herein, no utility services shall again be provided such person, business or corporation conducting business in the City of Camdenton, Missouri, until a current business license has been purchased and all penalties and utility disconnect/reconnection fees have been paid in full.
- C. The City of Camdenton, Missouri, shall give each person, business or corporation at least five (5) days' written notice of its intention to terminate utility services by delivering said notice to the office of the person, business, or corporation or mailing said notice to the last known address of such person, business, or corporation. Actual receipt of said written notice by such person, business or corporation is not necessary.
