PEACE OFFICER CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

(READ CAREFULLY)

To become eligible to be employed in the State of Missouri as a peace officer after August 28, 1996, a person must be pre-certified as a peace officer by the Peace Officer Standards and Training Program of the Missouri Department of Public Safety. Those who have never been certified must successfully enroll in and graduate from a POST approved basic police academy.

A POST administrative rule (11 CSR75-3.030 Requirements for and Terms of Certification) requires that Training Center and Directors shall determine if applicants are qualified to enroll in a peace officer basic training program. Consequently, Academy Directors must screen pre-service applicants (those trainees who are not sponsored by a law enforcement agency) and ensure that they meet the following standards. The pre-service applicant must:

- Is a citizen of the United States as evidenced by a birth certificate or passport.
- Have completed a high school education as evidenced by a high school diploma or general education development (GED) certificate.
- Be of good moral character and personal habits. Felony or misdemeanor arrests or convictions, suspended imposition of sentences (SIS), or involvement in incidents of moral turpitude may result in disqualifying persons from entering or completing a police academy program.
- Have a valid motor vehicle operator's license and have a good driving record. A felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) conviction or having more than five moving violations within 18 months, or a derogatory pattern of violations evidenced by the number, type and frequency of the infraction, may result in disqualifying a person from entering a police academy program.
- Submit fingerprint cards to the Missouri State Highway Patrol and pass a criminal background check prior to completion of the Academy. The Criminal History must be presented to the academy no later than three weeks after the academy has started.
- Demonstrate that he/she is physically capable of performing state mandated self defense tactics, firearms qualifications and physical coordination, endurance and agility tests that are viewed as part of the minimum training requirements and those activities that are within the scope of the general duties of law enforcement officer.
